ICT Summer Courses 2010

Courses suitable for Primary & Post Primary Teachers

Supporting & Developing ICT as a Teaching & Learning Resource

The aim of the course is to provide an introduction to a range of different technologies which can be used to enhance teaching and learning at primary level. This 20 hour course encourages a hands-on approach to learning. Modules are practical, demonstrating uses of different types of technologies but also their links to the primary school curriculum. An essential element of this course will be using Whiteboard Technology (Smart) as a Teaching & Learning resource.

Music & ICT in the Primary Classroom

This course will provide training in Rhythm, Performance Making etc. using Music Technology to reinforce & enhance practical skills in the Classroom. It will also be of assistance to teachers who wish to run music workshops with children. It will be extremely practical, teacher friendly & of course great fun. No previous experience or ability is necessary.
